This week's Worship and Reflection

The Transfiguration – Matthew 17:1-9

“...a voice from the cloud said, ‘This is my Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased. Listen to Him.’” Matt 17:5b

The story of the transfiguration is on the one hand fantastical and extraordinary – and for many, hard to believe. Yet it appears in three gospel accounts – here in Matthew, in Mark and also in Luke – and because it is so strange, many scholars now agree that there must have been a real historical event of this kind. On the mountaintop, Peter, James and John see Jesus’ face and clothes shine like the light of the sun, and hear him speaking with Moses the law giver and Elijah the great prophet. Then they hear the voice of God confirming Jesus as His Son whom He loves, and that they should listen to Him.

I am reminded of the old advert for Ready Brek back in the 80’s which showed people who’d eaten Ready Brek for breakfast glowing on their way to school or work!! I’m not sure that Jesus had eaten Ready Brek here! I have never seen someone glow with light quite like this – but I have noticed someone’s face kind of shine if they’re close to God in joyful worship, or in the first flushes of love. And I am reminded too of those words from the baptism service that call us to ‘shine as lights in the world, to the glory of God the Father’.

Jesus himself says earlier in Matthew’s gospel (Matt 13:43) that all God’s people would shine like stars in God’s kingdom. As followers of Jesus, we receive the light of Christ and are called to shine like lights in the world – so that others will see and want to meet Jesus too. Do we feel shiny? It’s easy to become tarnished by the world’s cares and sorrows. But this story reminds us that we all have this Christ-light inside of us and as eyewitnesses of His glory, God wants us to be guiding lights for others to find the truth about Jesus.

It’s no accident that the transfiguration is our gospel today when we are at a pivotal point in the church’s year. We have come through Christmas and Epiphany, and now during this coming week, the journey of Lent begins when we prepare for the mystery of Easter. The transfiguration story is about being surprised by the power, love and beauty of God. But it also calling us to recognize that same power, love and beauty within Jesus and to listen for it in His voice – not least when He tells us to take up our cross and follow Him. The word to the disciples on that mountaintop then is just as much a word to us today. If we want to find the way – to God and to the promised land – we must listen to Him.

This week, let’s keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, open our ears to listen to His voice and seek ways to shine as lights, serving God and each other in the world where we are.

To Pray

Holy God,
you know the disorder of our sinful lives: set straight our crooked hearts, and bend our wills to love your goodness and your glory
in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
